The Sermon on the Mount

MATTHEW 5:1-2

“Now when Jesus saw the crowds, he went up on a mountainside and sat down. His disciples came to him, and he began to teach them.”

MATTHEW 5:1-2

“Jesus’ followers will actualize these ethical and moral ideals, not as a means of entering the kingdom but as an outgrowth of the kingdom life that will be theirs through the empowering of the Spirit.”

“Jesus not only gives the ideal of the kingdom in the SM, but his description of life in the kingdom includes the enablement to attain the ideal.”

“The emphasis in the SM will be on inside-out transformation. Jesus will continually go to inner motivation, not external performance. The inner life will naturally transform the outer life. The heart that treasures the kingdom of heaven above all else will be the starting point for transformation of the entire life.”

MAKARIOS

THE BEATITUDES

MAKARIOS

THE BEATITUDES

THE POOR IN SPIRIT

November 3, 2019

Casey Moss

“Makarios is a state of existence in relationship to God in which a person is “blessed” from God’s perspective even when he or she doesn’t feel happy or isn’t presently experiencing good fortune. This does not mean a conferral of blessing or an exhortation to live a life worthy of blessing; rather, it is an acknowledgment that the ones indicated are blessed. Negative feelings, absence of feelings, or adverse conditions cannot take away the blessedness of those who exist in relationship with God.”

“They (the beatitudes) give a succinct statement of the ethos of the kingdom of heaven that Jesus has announced and summarize the principles of kingdom life that he will articulate in the Sermon that follows.”

MATTHEW 5:3

*“Blessed are the poor in spirit,
for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.”*

MATTHEW 5:3

*“MAKARIOS are the poor in spirit,
for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.”*

MATTHEW 5:3

*“Blessed are the poor in spirit,
for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.”*

“The Beatitudes are neither a means of entering nor of advancing in the kingdom. They are expressions of Spirit-produced kingdom life, revealing to the entire world that a transformation of creation is beginning in Jesus’ disciples. That is why we are blessed.”
