

The Lord's Prayer

October 18th, 2020

MATTHEW 6:9-15

Pray then like this:

"Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your name.
Your kingdom come,
your will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread,
and forgive us our debts,
as we also have forgiven our debtors.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.

For if you forgive others their trespasses, your heavenly Father will also forgive you, but if you do not forgive others their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses.

"What comes into our minds when we think about God is the most important thing about us"

-A.W. Tozer

Jesus Begins this prayer by defining who we are praying to, and that it's done in the correct way.

"We find the christian life so difficult because we seek for God's blessing while we live our own will."

-Andrew Murray

Is Jesus' way better than my way in every area of life? Do I live in such a way that shows this to be true?

God's provision of "our daily bread" isn't always what we want but it is what we need.

Jesus not only teaches us to pray correctly but He teaches us to pray often.

Prayer is meant to be proactive not just reactive.
