Matthew 6:19-24

19 “Do not store up for yourselves treasures on earth, where moths and vermin destroy, and where thieves break in and steal. 20 But store up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where moths and vermin do not destroy, and where thieves do not break in and steal. 21 For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also. 22 “The eye is the lamp of the body. If your eyes are healthy, your whole body will be full of light. 23 But if your eyes are unhealthy, your whole body will be full of darkness. If then the light within you is darkness, how great is that darkness! 24 “No one can serve two masters. Either you will hate the one and love the other, or you will be devoted to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve both God and money.”

What are treasures?

On Earth or In Heaven?

The Heart of the Matter

Two Eyes

Two Masters

“Rewards are important, but the greatest treasure in heaven is the Father. If Jesus’ disciples keep their hearts fully focused on the Father in heaven, then all other treasures of this world will pale in comparison. This will set a trajectory for healthy discipleship, including one’s priorities, motives, righteous deeds, ambitions, security, personal self-worth, and relationships.” Wilkins, Matthew
