I have discovered that all the unhappiness of men arises from one single fact, that they cannot stay quietly in their own chamber.

-Blaise Pascal

The background of the image is a wide-angle photograph of a desert landscape. In the foreground, there are rolling, light-colored hills with some darker, eroded patterns. A dry, winding riverbed or path cuts through the middle ground. In the distance, a range of mountains is visible under a clear, pale blue sky. The overall tone is serene and expansive.

What comes into our minds when we think about God is the most important thing about us
-A.W. Tozer

The background of the image is a vast desert landscape. In the foreground and middle ground, there are numerous layers of light-colored, tan, and brown rock formations, creating a textured, terraced appearance. The sky above is a deep, hazy purple, suggesting a twilight or dawn setting. The overall mood is serene yet somber, reflecting the theme of the quote.

We find the christian life so difficult because we seek for God's blessing while we live our own will.

-Andrew Murray
